Course Content:

This course is designed to help you understand the world of deception. We give you insight to uncover truths or lies during your interviews and casual conversations. Class content covers:

- Analyzing statements during your discussions or interviews.
- Body language of deceptive people.
- Verbal and non-verbal cues that people are lying to you.
- Communication structure of the liar.
- Facts to focus on to discover the truth.
- Questions to ask to get to the truth.

Get the edge on those around you, become a successful LIE DETECTOR! We will discuss dealing with people at work or where ever you use your skills. Deceptive clients, applicants, suspects, family, friends and children will be discussed. Course includes video, Power Point, and lots of great examples for you to learn from.

Your class cost also includes:

Morning coffee, door prizes, Idaho POST rosters, attendance certificates and a fun & educational atmosphere!

Intended Audience

This basic course is intended for anyone dealing with deception issues. Great for any personnel including inspectors, examiners, investigators, compliance personnel, code enforcement, campus safety, court personnel, probation officers, corrections officers, NEW police officers, fire/EMS, medical staff private security and investigators, human resources, mental health, government clerks, and any support personnel for these groups including reserves or official volunteers. Great for first time attendees or as a refresher.

Instructor:

Course instructor is Joe Puckett. Mr. Puckett has over 20 years of law enforcement experience and has been a public safety instructor since 1991. He will share his experiences as an investigator dealing with street crimes, high profile crimes as well as his relative experience dealing with employee interviews and human resources issues.
