Instructor:

Captain Joe Puckett (former administrator) has responded to critical incidents, dealt with difficult people, dangerous offenders and many deceptive people in his 21 years of law enforcement experience. During his career he developed an extreme interest in human behavior and the human response to words, actions and other influences. With his experience and interest he developed an edge by focusing on reading the body's often unconscious languages of danger, deception and various supporting attitudes and emotions.

Joe Puckett received many awards during his career from the national, state and local level for his investigative skills, insights, instruction and hard work ethic. He has instructed thousands of public safety, criminal justice, fire, government and corporate personnel in various aspects of the body's languages and influences since 1991.

Joe Puckett also brings to this training his diverse experience which included service as a crisis/hostage negotiator, first responder, investigator, law enforcement administrator, human resources experiences, airport and event/location security, dignitary protection and dealing with the public on non-criminal related matters. Mr. Puckett receives high ratings from attendees on his ability to instruct, his knowledge, his fairness and his ability to speak to various experience levels and disciplines.
